THE WARRIOR WAY

History of March

By: Kendahl Davis

The word "March" came from the ancient romans. The word came from the Latin word Martius. March/Marticus was the first month of the year in ancient roman. Many believe they named it after mars the roman God of war. March's most popular holiday is St. Patrick's day which is celebrated on the 17th of March. St. Patrick's day was started in 1737 by two dozen immigrants from the north of Ireland going to the American colonies.
